

Buffalo May 16th 64

Dear Will

I received your ever welcome letter Sunday noon There was some news on the Bulletin, but it did not amount to much, in the afternoon there was an extra out.
We have had the strangest weather lately it will rain five minutes & then the sun will shine about the same time.
Saturday evening I went over to see Walter Wilson (He got home the day after you left) he inquired for you, I spent two hours there most of the time in looking over views he brought from Europe, I had a very pleasant visit

Johnnie & George took the old cow out to the farm this morning & brought a new milch cow.

This evening or in fact every evening lately Father James Johnnie Georgie & your humble servant take a short walk. To night mother went with us.

Mr Haddock is down in the Parlor play ^{ing} cards; down I say because I am in James room which of course is above the parlor therefore it is correct - to say down, James has had some splendid vignettes taken.
What does How relate to, in the sentence How do you do, sir.
What thinkest thou of the news
O noble brother Does not thy heart swell with gratitude to ^{God &} our noble army.

Georgie says you can not ~~catch~~ him catch

The leaves are out on the trees beautifully & the buds, or rather flowers, are out on the cherry trees.

Your affectionate brother
Bryant

P.S. Bryant Grandall of the 44 New York is wounded & missing (see tribune 16th)
