

CAUT LIBRARIANS CONFERENCE
NEGOTIATING THE CHANGING CULTURE OF ACADEMIC LIBRARIANSHIP

After Action Review Activity

1. This activity can be done individually or in small groups if you are sitting with others from the same organization.

2. Pick a recent event or activity to review.

Event or activity: _____

3. Answer the following four questions:

What was supposed to happen?

What actually happened?

Why were there differences?

What did we learn?

4. Now, think about who could benefit from your insights. Is the event or activity that you just reviewed a repeatable process?

5. As a table, list the types of activities chosen for After Action Reviews (use the back of this sheet). Then think about future activities that are repeatable that might benefit from this process.
