

Friday P.M.

My dear Artie,

Now sit up straight,
hold your hat, and brace your feet while I unburden myself.

When I stop to think,
I did deserve the scolding you gave me Wednesday and see? – I have improved already.

Really the time has passed like lightening since I came.
Brother had planned a very elaborate program for me in the way of entertainment; and they have ^{so} many dear friends, who are making great efforts to prevent me from being homesick, that very little time is left for correspondence. I have received twenty eight letters during my nine _ days sojourn here, and I have answered but four of those people.

I go canoeing and motoring nearly every day, and play golf and dance quite a bit at the club. To-day it is raining, so we are going to the movies. To-morrow we are going to Plymouth. It is a six hour sail. Three hours going, three coming back and you are allowed one hour to see "ole" rock. Shall I take a "peek" for you?

Next Friday I go to Conn. for the weekend and then home.
My that sounds nice.

Off for the movies now
Affectionately,
Lessie.
