

Pardon pencil, honey

but there isn't a pen around

The Princeton Pictorial Review

The illustrated Bi-weekly of Princeton University

48th letter

OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER

Princeton, N. J. Saturday

January 26th, '18

My own darling boy,

No! I am not in Princeton, but at my home on Avon Avenue, sitting at my hubbie's desk. Ooh!! doesn't that sound nice?

I came down at four thirty this afternoon.
I am going to have tea with Mother and Father Schmon, then go to a party on 15th Street

this evening. It is in honor of Maude Spence, and is to be a real "hen party." (if it had been anything else, my darling, I wouldn't have accepted the invitation) Maude's mother in law to be – Mrs. Douglas – is giving it, and it will be a big surprise. I love surprises, and I'm sure we'll have lots of fun. I am coming back here after to stay all night; and guess where I'm going to sleep!! In my hubbies's bed.

The Princeton Pictorial Review

The illustrated Bi-weekly of Princeton University

OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER

Princeton, N. J.

I have often heard that whatever you dream
the first night you sleep in a strange bed, is sure to come true. Lets hope that I dream
the old war will soon be over, and my Artie ^{will be} coming home to his little sweetheart. I am going to stay and have dinner with our parents to-morrow.
Won't that be nice? Wish you were going to be here, too: but wait until our “someday” comes. Joy!!!

I am going to say bye-bye, dearest, for Mother Schmon wants to add a line.

All my love and all XXXXXXXX

Myself XXXXXXXX

P.S. Mother just said that she is going to write more than one line, so will use a separate sheet of paper. That leaves me room to add a few

Lovingly-more kisses XX

Letty XXXXXXXX

XXXXXXXXXX

The Princeton Pictorial Review

The illustrated Bi-weekly of Princeton University

OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER

Princeton, N. J.

Arthur dear,

We are very glad to have Celeste with us tonight. It takes a little of our blues away.

I am so disappointed that you are not coming home right away, but I hope and pray that our Heavenly Father will watch over you and bring you safely back to us, we will pray for you.

Your loving Mother and Father,

From NEWARK N.J.
113 Delavan Ave., JAN 27
Newark, N.J. U.S.A. 11 - PM
1918

2nd Lieut. Arthur A. Schmon,
Field Artillery, U.S.R.
Fifth Field Artillery,
American Expeditionary Force, France.

Via N.Y.