Further Particulars of the Escape.

All the Canadian Prisoners Set Free.

Numerous Fenian Papers Given in Our Hands.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

BRANTFORD, June 3.

The Fenians crossed Fort Erie on Thursday night, and this morning two boats went out to this village and captured a number of Fenians. The attack is said to be from Fort Erie.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

BRANTFORD, June 3, 4 a.m.

Fort Erie, the Fenians were captured by the police shortly after two o'clock this morning. The prisoners were stated that about three hundred Fenians were being made up in the camp in the rear of Fort Erie this morning, two general inspections made, and the Fenians were caught.

J. GRAY, Fort Erie.

The Fenians commenced their attack at two o'clock, but the entire body of troops is the enemy proper, and not the Canadian militia.

All the said and written material damage.

Belleville, June 3.

Lieutenant-Colonel James B. McCracken, C. E., has been appointed to the position of chief engineer in the rear of Fort Erie.
