Our Gallant Volunteers foremost in the attack.

Three miles from the village of Ridgeway, N.Y., volunteers under Capt. Barrow arrived here to join the regiment. At the height of the battle, the wounded were being carried on stretchers.

4th EDITION

FIRST ENGAGEMENT

Our Gallant Volunteers foremost in the attack.

Three miles from the village of Ridgeway, N.Y., volunteers under Capt. Barrow arrived here to join the regiment. At the height of the battle, the wounded were being carried on stretchers.

3rd EDITION

Seige of Fort Erie.

Black Rock. The British maneuvering seems to be a success. The enemy is now in pursuit, and the battle is pushing along the heights. The Federal troops are in the woods.

5th EDITION

FRENCH LEADER SHOT.

The Hello Chime his Regiment.

7th EDITION

FORT ERIE ERACED.

The French Great Mills Bend.

5th EDITION

The French Great Mills Bend.

A Fight Momentarily Expected.

Col. Lowry at the Front.

10th MAN UNDER HIS COMMAND.

In this battle, the French were in the woods.

6th EDITION

FRENCH LEADER SHOT.

The Hello Chime his Regiment.

FRENCH LEADER SHOT.

The Hello Chime his Regiment.

4th EDITION

VICTORY! VICTORY!

THE FENANS BEING DISPERSSED.

6 PRISONERS CAPTURED.

They Burn their Ammunition.

All Honor to the Queen's Own.

A Bold Example to Our Meddlesome Editors.

From our own Correspondent.

The British troops are in possessions of the heights. The French are in the woods.

From our own Correspondent.

The British troops are in possessions of the heights. The French are in the woods.

From our own Correspondent.

The British troops are in possessions of the heights. The French are in the woods.