

Wednesday Morning Nov 27th/50

Dear Erecta

I received your letter on the on the 26th and was very happy to hear from you are enjoying good health, you asked forgiveness for not answering my letter soon than you did, Dear Erecta I freely forgive you and in return I ask forgiving for neglecting the short task of putting a few words in one of the papers I sent you I forgot it Sweet Girl being in a hurry to mail it a fire just broke out on Main St. Near the churches oh Erecta I wish I was near enough to say to you in a low wisper or even half aloud remember the holidays, I would then be happy but as I am I cannot say I am happy but content myself with the hope of once again in less than a month of enjoying the agreeable company of her that my heart ondy beats for. I am allmost ashamed and would be quite if I thought anyone else knew how easy I am frightened Dear Erecta is there anyone else that knows any thing about it forgive me Sweet Girl forgive me for asking, but why should I be I know not forgive the shortness of this letter but look for amore lengthy one in future no more at present from him that lives for and Loves you ondy

Yours truly and forever Andrew May
