

Title:	Circular to Collectors from the United States Treasury Department, Comptroller's Office, October 7, 1812.
Creator:	Richard Rush, United States Treasury Department, Comptroller's Office
Dates of Material:	October 7, 1812	Record Group Number:	RG 676
Summary of Contents:	A circular to American customs officers reminding them to be especially vigilant in preventing American ships from trading provisions to the British in any of the ports of Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. This was during the early months of the War of 1812. The circular begins "As there is reason to think attempts may be made to evade the provisions of the act of the 6th of July last, to prohibit vessels of the United States, from proceeding to or trading with the enemy, I have to call your attention to it with a view to its most vigilant execution..." The circular is signed by Richard Rush [Comptroller of the Treasury].
Physical Description / Condition:	1 circular, 24 x 17 cm.
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch:
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Purchased in 2018.
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	December 2018