Dear Miss Dalrymple-
Won't you
please let me know when Mr. Page & his family are in this part of the country, as we very much want you all to spend ~~the~~
an afternoon & evening with us. If you could

For Elsie & all

2

let me know the day
of your coming we should be glad.

A telegram from Los Angeles last Tuesday told us of the death of my dear brother Charlie, who had been ill in bed for two months. It is a comfort to know that he was among loving friends,
everything was done
for him that could be

3

done, & his last weeks on earth were peaceful & serene.

Hoping to see you all here this month – you & Jean & Elsie & Frank & little Ellen – don't one of you dare stay away!

Ever your loving friend
