

|   |  |                             |            |
|---|--|-----------------------------|------------|
| Title:                               | Alexander McDonnell warrant to pay the incorporated Militia, 1815  |                             |            |
| Creator:                             |  |                             |            |
| Dates of Material:                   | March 22, 1815   | Record Group Number: | RG 745     |
| Summary of Contents:                 | The warrant is an order from Gordon Drummond, President administering the Province of Upper Canada, to John McGill, Receiver General of Upper Canada, directing him to pay McDonnell, the Deputy Paymaster of the General Militia, 288 pounds, eleven shillings and six pence Halifax Currency, equal to 269 pounds, six shillings and nine pence army sterling. The money is to enable him to pay the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the incorporated militia. The document is signed at Kingston, March 22, 1815, and is signed by Gordon Drummond, President, and Robert H. Loring, Secretary. |                             |            |
| Physical Description / Condition:    | 1 sheet  |                             |            |
| Administrative/ Biographical Sketch: | Alexander McDonnell (1762-1842) was an army and militia officer and politician. In 1812 he was appointed deputy paymaster general of the militia with the rank of colonel. He also served in Upper Canada's parliament representing Glengarry.  |                             |            |
| Location:                            | Brock University Archives  |                             |            |
| Source Information:                  | Acquired from Alexander Books.   |                             |            |
| Described by:                        | Chantal Cameron  | Date:                | March 2022 |