

Title:	Film of the Welland Rose Festival, 1978
Creator:
Dates of Material:	1978	Record Group Number:	RG 770
Summary of Contents:	One 16 mm film reel of the 1978 Welland Rose Festival. A digitized copy of the film is available on a USB stick with RG 771, Niagara Now Rodman Hall Artists.
Physical Description / Condition:	1 16 mm film reel
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch:	The Welland Rose Festival began in 1961 and is a volunteer-run event that celebrates the community's heritage. The festival has many events including the Coronation Ball, the Street Dance, the Art Exhibition, Days in the Park, the Children's Fishing Derby, the Baby Show, and the Grande Parade.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Donated by Jim Davey, who was a member of a team of A/V students who planned, filmed and edited the movie, which was sponsored by the City of Welland. The film was digitized by Steve Hartwell in August 2021.
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	April 2022