

Title:	Reminiscences of the early years of Brock University basketball
Creator:	Claude Zorzetto
Dates of Material:	2017	Record Group Number:	RG 759
Summary of Contents:	Consists of a 3-page typewritten account of Claude Zorzetto's experiences with the early years of Brock University's basketball team. Zorzetto was on the first Brock University basketball team in 1966 and remained on the team until 1970. Also contains several black and white photocopied photographs of the Brock University basketball team and players, including Zorzetto.
Physical Description / Condition:	3 pages
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch:	Claude Zorzetto (1947-2021) was born in Treviso, Italy, and came to Canada as a young boy. He attended Brock University and received a B.Ed. and M.Ed., followed by a long career in elementary education in Niagara. During his time at Brock he joined the university's first basketball team. He later coached basketball, including at Brock basketball clinics in the 1970s, and was a volunteer coach for the Pelham Panthers Basketball Association.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Acquired from Claude Zorzetto in 2017.
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	April 2022