

Title:	Medieval Act for Gilles Dabelain, July 12, 1445.
Creator:
Dates of Material:	July 12, 1445	Record Group Number:	RG 824
Summary of Contents:	Medieval Act for one Gilles Dabelain, July 12, 1445. Two Manuscripts on Parchment. A mid-15th century medieval act, written in French and on parchment, being an original copy of the act sanctioning the division of Gilles Dabelain's property between his children Hues and Jehanne, the latter being the wife of Jehan de Lannoy, written in the city of Lille, France, July 12, 1445. Attached to the act is a smaller, accompanying manuscript on parchment. There are three original seals at the end. The primary manuscript has been written in a 105-line format, and the attached manuscript an 18-line format.
Physical Description / Condition:	Two manuscripts on parchment (72 x 57 cm and 25 x 12 cm)
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch:
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Acquired from That Guy with the Books in 2022.
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	January 2023