Administrative History: The Brock University Alumni Association was created with the graduation of the University's first students in 1967. The Brock University Alumni Association is an autonomous organization championed and governed by a volunteer Board of Directors. The Alumni Association represents the interests of all Brock University Alumni and acts as an advocate on their behalf. The goal of the Alumni Association is to continue to add value to the Brock degree, to provide support in personal and professional development and to help alumni stay connected to the Brock community.
