

Title:	City of the Falls clippings, 1833, n.d.
Creator:	Unknown
Dates of Material:	1833, n.d.	Record Group Number:	RG 218
Summary of Contents:	Two printed clippings
Physical Description / Condition:	Clippings are in fair to poor condition. One clipping has paper loss.
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	The clippings describe the City of the Falls and its attempts by its shareholders to sell lots to this newly developing city. The venture by shareholders W. Allan, James Buchanan, Thomas Clark, J.H. Dunn, Thomas Dixon, General Murray, James Robinson, Samuel Street and William Witla intended to favourably position their city as a destination for “affording an easy approach for the annual assemblage of the Fashionable, the Learned and the Great”. The venture failed due to the building of the Buffalo and Niagara Falls railway.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:

Subject Headings: Added Entries:	651 Niagara Falls (Ont.) xHistory vSources. 651 City planning zOntario zNiagara Falls.
Related material held at other repositories:
Described by:	Edie Williams	Date:	March 10, 2010