

Title:	Photograph of Fairview Public School, Louth Township, c. 1940
Creator:	[John Workman Haynes]
Dates of Material:	Circa 1940-1950	Record Group Number:	RG 364
Summary of Contents:	One black and white photograph of Fairview Public School, 9 th Street, Louth Township, Lincoln Co., Ontario. In the foreground is the new brick, 2 story school, built in 1919. In the lower right the old one room school house is visible. This had been moved around 1890 from its original site 30-50 yards south of the southwest corner of 9 th street and Highway #88 (Regional Road 88).
Physical Description / Condition:	1 b&w photograph There are two small tears on the bottom edge of the photograph.
Other Notes:	Fairview School was built in 1919 in Louth Township, Lincoln County, Ont. The school remained in operation until 1979 when it was purchased for a church, the Fairview-Louth Community church, which later became Southridge Community church. Currently, the building is occupied by the Niagara Korean Presbyterian Church.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Donated by John C. Haynes in May 2011.
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	November 22, 2011