

Title:	Barnes Wines: Canada's Oldest Winery flyer. n.d.
Creator:	Barnes Wines
Dates of Material:	n.d.	Record Group Number:	RG 357
Summary of Contents:	1 flyer
Physical Description / Condition:	Flyer is in excellent condition. It contains pictures of George Barnes, a copy of part of the original charter incorporating the Ontario Grape and Wine Producing Company, and a picture of the original Barnes Winery building.
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	In 1873 George Barnes, Andrew Skinner, James Skinner, John Young Reid, Charles Robert Murray, George Magan, Thomas Barnes and Robert Duncan applied for, and received a charter for a commercial winery which would be called The Ontario Grape Growing and Wine Manufacturing Company Limited. It opened in 1894 and became known as Barnes Wines Limited. In 1973 the company completed a merger with Reckitt and Coleman (Canada) Limited. The winery operated until 1988 and was located on the banks of the old Welland Canal in St. Catharines, Ontario. The company produced a complete line of table wines, dessert wines, sherries, ports, and both crackling and sparkling wines. Barnes Wines called itself "Canada's oldest winery" at the time of the printing of this flyer.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:

Subject Headings:	600 Barnes, George 610 Barnes Wines Limited 650 Wine and wine making z Canada 650 Wineries zOntario zNiagara Peninsula 720 Brock University bArchives
Added Entries:
Related material held at other repositories:
Described by:	Anne Adams	Date:	Sept 26, 2011