

| | | | |
|--|--|-----------------------------|------------|
| Title: | Letter written by John Bentley, Sept. 26, 1813 | | |
| Creator: | John Bentley | | |
| Dates of Material: | September 26, 1813 | Record Group Number: | RG 411 |
| Summary of Contents: | A letter written by John Bentley, an American soldier during the War of 1812, to his wife Betsey. The letter makes reference to an impending attack on Canada, with speculation that the attack may occur at Kingston, Montreal or Prescott. | | |
| Physical Description / Condition: | 1 folded sheet Folded dimensions are 25 x 21 cm. | | |
| Other Notes: | Full transcript of item available by clicking on "View item" link in the catalogue record. John Bentley was a sergeant during the War of 1812. He served with the 21 st U.S. infantry under Eleazar Wheelock Ripley at Sacket's Harbour, New York. | | |
| Location: | Brock University Archives | | |
| Source Information: | Purchased from Patrick McGahern Books, Inc. (ABAC) in 2012. | | |
| Described by: | Chantal Cameron | Date: | April 2012 |