A NEW ADVERTISEMENT. To Merchants, Store-Keepers and Traders in general, &c.

GENTLEMEN, I FEEL a peculiar pleasure in stating, that you have so generously and generally come forward and subscribed for my work, that (notwithstanding all provisos heretofore made by me) the Coins and Monies of Account of the principal maritime trading places in RUSSIA, SWEDEN, DENMARK, NORWAY, PRUSSIA, POLAND, GERMANY, HOLLAND, FLANDERS, SPAIN, PORTUGAL, ITALY, in several of the WINDWARD and LEEWARD WEST INDIA ISLANDS, and many Parts in the EAST INDIES,—the whole to be reduced to Dollars and Cents; and the best mode of computing the Exchange with those places, explained: together with a large Sheet Table of calculations at Compound Interest at 6 per cent. the Tables used in Banks for the determination of the value of gold: the interest for each month from one to twelve months, on every Dollar (without exception) from one to two thousand $ and a Table of all the Bills-Torans in the United States; besides much other generally useful information,—shall positively be added to the work, entitled,

ROWLET'S TABLES OF DISCOUNT, OR INTEREST, On every Dollar (without exception) From one to two thousand $, thereon on every ten, fifty, and one hundred, to five thousand, from one day to forty-four days inclusive, at six per cent. with notes for 5, 7, and 8 per cent. &c. &c. &c.

THE WORK IS DEDICATED, BY PERMISSION, TO THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE BANK OF NORTH AMERICA, and received in the first twelve days the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate; of two-thirds of the SENATORS and MEMBERS of the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks UNANIMOUSLY, &c.—a list of the whole is printed and attached to the proposals.

It is evident that the work will be no trumpery catch-pony-thing; for I do assure the public, that the price of it is reduced very near one half, according to the usual rate at which books sell; and it is my full determination to render it in point of SUBJECT-MATTER, a valuable acquisition.

With respect to the accuracy of the Tables, too much cannot be said; and I pledge myself that a PREMIUM of not less than ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS shall be offered to the first person who shall inform me of a single error of one cent, according to the principle acted upon.

To do away all doubts with respect to the expenses of the undertaking, I do most solemnly declare that they will amount to very near 1000 THOUSAND DOLLARS, and perhaps more, independent of any remuneration for my own trouble in the arduous business, and the great expense already incurred for specimens, proposals, advertisements, hand-bills, &c. &c.

I do therefore trust with confidence, that Gentlemen will continue to come forward with that public spirit and generous liberality which has distinguished them, and support the work by subscribing to it without hesitation; otherwise it cannot be published, and I must sit down to reflect upon a considerable loss.

I am, with profound respect, Gentlemen, Your obedient humble servant, JOHN ROWLETT, Accountant, Bank of North America.

Philadelphia, 21st March, 1800. P. S. Gentlemen are respectfully invited to see Specimens of the Tables, &c. exhibited at the several Banks and Insurance Offices, and the Book-Store of WEST and ORRENLEAF, No. 56, Cornhill. And please be referred to the other advertisements which appear every day in some of the new-papers.

Subscribers are to pay nothing until the book is delivered rigorously conformable to all Regulations. Copy-right secured, according to act of Congress, on 31st Jan. 1800. Boston, May 30, 1800.

This day is Published, By THOMAS DOBSON, At the Stone House, No. 41, South Second-Street, Philadelphia,

VOLUME I. PART I. OF THE SUPPLEMENT TO THE ENCYCLOPEDIA, Illustrated with seven new Copperplates.

NO dictionary of arts, sciences, and miscellaneous literature, has hitherto been published to which a supplement is so necessary. The reason is obvious: Every dictionary must be arranged in the order of the alphabet; and if but a very few years pass away during its progress through the press, important discoveries may be made in the interval, of which it must be impossible for the Editor to give any account without deviating entirely from the plan of the work. This has been the case in a very remarkable degree during the publication of the ENCYCLOPEDIA.

Since the first sheets of it were given to the public, a period of two years have elapsed.—The most eventful period in history! During which, countries have been explored, to which we were formerly strangers; new principles have been introduced into fine sciences, new modes of thinking adopted in the cultivation of others, new arts have been invented, and even unknown powers of nature have been discovered; and in these inventions and discoveries such names have been given, as, from the progress of the publication, could not find a place in the series of the alphabet.

These subjects are arranged in the order of the alphabet, together with such new subjects as are from time to time received. The whole will probably make three volumes of about 700 pages each, besides copper-plates, at Six Dollars per volume. The last volume is to be paid on subscribing, and the other volumes on delivery; and to prevent misunderstanding, it is proper to express that no subscription will be received, nor paid delivered without the money.

The Subscriptions will be received on these terms till the first Volume is finished—after which the price will be raised One Dollar per volume for those copies which shall not then have been subscribed for. Names will be received by West & Orrenleaf, E. Larkin, Wm P. & L. Blate, and Thomas & Andrews, Booksellers, Boston. May 27.

TO LET, THE Building, No. 71, State-Street, occupied by Mrs. BRANT, as a Boarding-house, and Capt. GARNER as an Auction-Office. Inquire of the Printers.

Miscellany. FOR THE MERCURY.

Messrs. YOUNG & MINNS,

IT is thought by many that the late election for Governor called forth all the exertions of both parties, and affords a conclusive proof of the strength and temper of both. This is incorrect. Mr. GERRY, if no federalist, passed for one, and therefore was qualified to sweep in every anti-federal vote, as he certainly did, and many hundred federal votes, as he ought not to have done.

But parties are believed to have done their utmost and to have been equally busy and zealous. This is also incorrect.

The census gave four hundred and seventy-five thousand inhabitants in all Massachusetts. The votes returned were about 59,000; so that the proportion was one vote to twelve persons and about one fourth of a person. The county of Norfolk, of all in the state, the most Jacobinical, contained about 22000 souls. The votes were 2567, about one vote to 8 1/2 persons, which is one share and a half share of the average. In other words, eight persons in Norfolk voted as much as twelve in the state in general.

As Essex, not much less Jacobinical than Norfolk, had 42000 inhabitants; votes 4501, at the rate of one vote to 9 1/2 persons. The two counties gave upwards of 7000 votes, which is between a fifth and a sixth of the votes of the whole state. It is probable, however, that they do not contain one tenth of the present number of people.

Thus it appears that the industry of the parts of the state, which, unhappily for its peace, are so deeply disaffected, was twice as great as that of the other parts. Even in Hampshire, where Governor STRONG is known, respected, and justly beloved, the votes, though numerous beyond example, were only 5236; yet Hampshire probably contains at this day, more inhabitants than both Norfolk and Middlesex. Can there be a stronger proof how much the energy of the discontented people exceeds the languid spirit of those who are satisfied? It shews how drowsy federalists have been, and how wakeful they ought to be.

For the votes do not at first view express all the strength of public opinion in favour of Governor STRONG. The Counties of Berkshire, Hampshire, Essex, Cumberland and Lincoln, contained in 1790, almost 150,000 people. Four of these five Counties have increased prodigiously since that time, and far beyond their average proportion of the increase of the people of Massachusetts. It is not rash to suppose that these five Counties contain a full half of the numbers of the State. They gave more than 10,000 votes for Governor STRONG, and upwards of 3700 for Mr. GERRY. Take all these facts and statements together, and they will clearly shew that a really large majority of the citizens, and certainly not the least found and respectable part, supported the election of our present excellent Chief Magistrate: and as his virtues and talents and conciliatory manners cannot fail to augment the number of his supporters, we may congratulate ourselves in the happy prospect of the State being again in a way to be in peace and harmony, as in the days of Governor SUMNER, whom he so much resembles in many of his qualities.

TURKEY. CONSTANTINOPLE, FEB. 19. An English Squadron still cruizes before Alexandria. The Thebes, of this fleet, has just taken a vessel for France with a valuable cargo. Gen. Menou, two other considerable officers and 150 soldiers, were taken in her. The same ship took 7 boats belonging to the Nile, laden with sugar, rice and coffee.

MARCH 10. A Squadron of 12 sail of the line, &c. is ordered for Egypt. It is commanded by the Captain Paclia, who is on board the Selim. Troops are also ordered towards Egypt. Since the certainty of the capitulation of the French Army these measures appear surprising; but all the Ministers of the Allies are confided as to the object.

PALERMO (SICILY) FEB. 15. Fresh troops are ordered for Malta, where the inhabitants, to the amount of 15000, are to assist in the assault. His Sicilian Majesty is to have the island when it is taken. Two English regiments are here and two others are expected.

BERLIN, (PRUSSIA) APRIL 5. Our first Minister of State will go as Ambassador to Paris, to prevent the French from making a separate peace with Austria, too much for her interest. Russian Prussia, Sweden, Denmark, and Saxony are reported to have coaliced to prevent the Austrian interest from being advanced by the French establishing the Rhine as a boundary.—Dumourier, is said to be appointed Commander in Chief of Russian troops destined to act against France.

Letters from Frankfort March 1, say, that it is reported a body of Russia troops are coming again to the Rhine; and a body are to assist the English in another attempt on Holland. The Russians by treaty are to furnish 45000 men to the English.

It is asserted that the differences between Germany and Russia are settled; and that the latter will furnish 18000 men to the former, agreeably to treaty.

LONDON, APRIL 14. Moreau, in Switzerland, lately addressing his troops, observed, that the First Consul's overture for peace being entirely rejected, the campaign would soon open. Massena addressed his army; about the same time in similar language.

APRIL 23. A letter from Lindau, says, the Archduke CHARLES has been necessitated to retire from the army, by the intrigues against him. Regard for his health is only a pretence.

Massena's army in Italy is stated at 50,000 men. French head quarters on the Rhine are at Colmar. Mannheim has been bombarded by the French.

Earl St. Vincent, commands the channel fleet, vice Lord Bridport, resigned.

Massachusetts Legislature. ANSWER OF THE SENATE, TO THE SPEECH OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

May it please your Excellency,

THE Senate, with particular and sincere satisfaction, offer you their congratulations upon your election to the Chief Magistracy of the Commonwealth. Your fellow-citizens by their free and uninfluenced suffrages, have called you to preside in their councils, and constituted you their political father. We rejoice, in common with the friends of virtue, patriotism, and religion, in this distinguished mark of their affection and confidence; and we indulge the pleasing expectation and belief, that your administration will be guided by that spirit of mildness, and that unshaken attachment to the government and its laws, which during a long series of public services you have so eminently manifested.

THE loss which our country has lately sustained, by the death of some of its most worthy and beloved citizens, is a subject of mournful regret; and affords a solemn lesson, to those who are called to succeed them in places of honor and preferment. And we trust that its instructive and affecting influence, will have a tendency to double their zeal in the cause of virtue and their country.—The removal of the late Governor SUMNER by death was indeed an afflicting event: Amiable and exemplary in private life; punctual, intelligent, vigilant and patriotic in his public functions, he would long have continued the friend, the ornament, and the pride of his fellow-citizens, if their affections and prayers could have prolonged his useful and valuable life.

AMERICA has lost in General WASHINGTON her first and best friend; and the world, a distinguished and an enlightened benefactor! That such a man (under Providence) was the founder of our government, and the able and faithful guardian of its rights;—that he conducted its armies to victory, and its citizens to independence and happiness; that he stood firm and uncorrupted at the helm of the nation, amidst the storm of party, and the dangerous and uncertain operation of systems of experiment;—that he triumphed over vice, anarchy, and the enemies of public order;—that he has transmitted to posterity a new and great example of private and patriotic virtue, and therein an inheritance, which, if rightly improved, will extend its happy influence to remotest posterity;—and that he closed the career of a life devoted to his country and the good of mankind, with the hopes and joys of a philosopher and a christian, are considerations which ought, amidst the universal sorrow for his loss, to create, in the breast of every American, not only the highest gratitude, but an unalterable attachment to his country's welfare.

We realize, with your Excellency, and our fellow citizens at large, the loss sustained by the death of the late Lieutenant-Governor. The early friends of American freedom will long remember with gratitude his zeal and faithfulness in her cause. His reward has been the unequivocal testimony of the esteem of his fellow-citizens, by their repeated and unanimous election to the second office in their gift.

WHATEVER may be the event of our negotiations with the French Government, it will be a source of satisfaction to the people of the United States, that every measure has been adopted; which wisdom and prudence could dictate, to reconcile our differences in an amicable manner. Having been patient under multiplied and aggravated encroachments upon our rights as a neutral nation, we have the fullest confidence, that the independent and enlightened citizens of America, will cheerfully submit to every measure and duty, which the safety and honor of their country may demand. We cordially unite with your Excellency in opinion, that the restoration of harmony will greatly depend upon our preparations for defence. And when the faithful pen of history, shall record our sincere and ardent desires for reconciliation and peace, and yet it also record the grateful acknowledgments of Americans, to the Author of every "good and perfect gift," for the blessings of the best government by which society has ever been united.

The Senate receive and reciprocate with great satisfaction and sincerity, your Excellency's sentiments upon the subject of morality and religion. Our Ancestors early recognized the great and important truth, that religion and good government are intimately connected, and must stand or fall together.

If the people of New-England have experienced great prosperity, or manifested an attachment to the interests of science, beyond any former example, it is evidently the salutary result of those institutions of religion and learning, which were among the first works of their pious and patriotic founders. We lament with deep regret, the disposition of any of our citizens, to depart from the ancient manners and habits of our country. In a government like ours, which can be supported only by the virtue and the intelligence of the people, its foundation is essentially undermined and endangered, by a propensity to innovation and licentiousness. We shall consider it among the first duties of the Legislature to endeavour, by every rational and constitutional method, to check its alarming progress; and we feel a sincere and unfeigned gratification, that the principles and example of your Excellency will not only have a tendency to support and encourage the friends of religion, but also to reclaim the misguided enemies.

The good effects of our ancient religious institutions have been so long and so amply experienced that we ardently hope the Legislature will consider their support and encouragement, among the first objects of its care; and that the people at large, will be enabled to form a just estimate of their nature and excellence.

Your Excellency will be pleased to accept the assurances of the Senate, of their cordial wishes for the success of your administration; and we join with you in the solemn supplication, that the "Almighty may succeed our united endeavours to render the people of the Commonwealth prosperous and happy."

Foreign Intelligence.

By the Active, arrived at Philadelphia in 39 days from London.

French Successes in Italy.

PARIS, APRIL 27. General SOUCHEZ, lieutenant of the general in chief, is General BONAPARTE.

Head-quarters of Medona, 26 Criminali, April 16. General.

FOR six days the army of Italy has been engaged with the enemy. Finding myself detached from the army of the commander in chief MASSENA, and having an opportunity of being able to give you intelligence of the army, I think it my duty to do so directly. On the 16th General GONZALEZ attacked in person the heights of Savona. Lieut. Gen. SOUCHEZ, who commanded them, withstood during the whole day; the attack of the enemy on Cadibona and Montebello, in order that he might be able to fend the fort of Savona what was necessary for its defence, and to effect his retreat to Genoa; for at the commencement of the day he could easily perceive that the enemy had such a superiority of force, that he could not hope to overcome it. He threw a garrison of 700 men into the fort of Savona, and in the evening effected his retreat to Albisola. The same day Gen. MIOGALDI was attacked on the Riviera de Levante; he was at first obliged to fall back; but on the 17th Gen. MASSENA advanced thither in person, beat the Austrians, and took from them 2500 prisoners, among whom are Gen. Baton d'ASTRA.

On the 20th, Gen. MASSENA attacked the enemy at Sestri and Albisola. The affair continued the whole day, and on the 21st, Gen. MASSENA briskly repulsed the enemy, and took from them a number of prisoners. On the 23d, 24th, and 25th, Gen. MASSENA had sharp engagements, the result of which was constantly in our favour. He took from the enemy 4500 prisoners, 7000 mules, and 6 pieces of cannon.

On the 13th, however, I had evacuated the position of St. Jacques, and had advanced to the line of Borghetto. The Marsina de la Nave was taken and retaken several times. The Hungarian grenadiers suffered considerably at Medona, where they were vigorously repulsed. The 17th and the grenadiers of the 35th, distinguished themselves in a particular manner. Observing that the enemy were endeavouring to turn me, I determined to advance to the line of Borghetto. During this time, Gen. ZALOSNIKI completely beat the division of the enemy, which was detaching by Torinese and had already arrived at Preva. He took from them 500 prisoners.

On the 19th, having received orders from Gen. MASSENA to attack the enemy, I marched on the 20th. The troops took by assault and bayonet the tower and redoubt of Medona, with 400 prisoners, 120 of whom were officers. The chief of the battalion of VEDAL, belonging to the 34th demi-brigade, was the first who rushed into the entrenchments. The Col. of the Austrian regiment of Orange was killed.

My loss in these different affairs does not exceed 110 wounded, and 30 killed.—The loss of the enemy independently of the prisoners, has been much greater.

Among the brave men whom the army has to regret, is Clavel, chief of battalion, of the 10th.

On the 20th Gen. CLAVEL was engaged the whole day on the small hills in the neighbourhood of Saint Jerome. He took prisoners, 150 Hungarian grenadiers. Chevalier Chef du Battalion, assistant to the adj. gen. SOUCHEZ, was killed. We fought the whole day of the 22d, Gen. SOUCHEZ was wounded.

Gen. OUDINOT, chief of the staff, who was the bearer of dispatches from the commander in chief, has just joined me. I am on the heights of the Finale and Melegnano. The 10th demi-brigade has just arrived. We are going to reclober our efforts for a general and decisive attack.

The Chief Consul has received a letter from Gen. OUDINOT, containing the statements of Gen. SOUCHEZ; and after that, during the different actions mentioned, MASSENA in person took 6000 prisoners, including one General, two Colonels, several Majors, 200 other Officers, seven standards and 6 pieces of cannon. Gen. SOUCHEZ took 1800 prisoners and one standard.

All our papers say, news has arrived, that the Army of the Rhine is engaged.

LONDON, APRIL 24. The French are actively reinforcing their army of Italy—where it is thought BONAPARTE will march with the army of reserve; and make it the principal theatre of the war. Gen. MOREAU it is said will attempt to penetrate into Sardinia.

The Mediterranean Expedition is said to be abandoned—and that Gen. SEURAT is going to take command at Jamacha with fresh troops.

APRIL 30. Sir. C. HAMILTON, from France, says, BONAPARTE has left Paris for Dijon.

NORFOLK, (VIRG.) MAY 27. Yesterday morning, Mr. THORNTON, surgeon of the U. S. frigate Congress, was found dead in his berth.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 4. A letter dated to have arrived at Porto Rico three days before Capt. Jones failed, direct from France, in 18 days, reported, that by an arrete of the French Republic all privateers in the West-Indies were shortly to be called in; and the strongest appearance of the conclusion of a peace, between the United States and France, was visible from all their proceedings.

Extract of a letter from Captain TALBOT, of the U. S. frigate Confederation, to the Secretary of the Navy, dated 13th May, 1800.

"I have now to acquaint you, Sir, that I have for some time been meditating an enterprise against a French armed ship, lying at Port Plata, protected by her own guns, and a fort of three heavy cannon. It was my first intention to have gone with the Confederation and to have silenced the fort and ship, which had all her guns on one side to co-operate with the fort in defending against any hostile force. But after the best information I could gain, I found it to be somewhat dangerous to approach the entrance of the Harbour with a ship of the draught of water of the Confederation. Having detained the sloop Sally, which had left Port Plata but a few days before, and which was to have returned there again previous to her falling for the U. S. I conceived this sloop would be a suitable vessel for a disguise; I therefore manned her at sea, from the Confederation, with about thirty brave seamen and marines. The vessel was to be commanded by Capt. CARMICHAEL and Lt. ANTONY, when on shore; but the entire command of the detachment I gave to Mr. HALL, my first Lieut. who entered the harbour of Port Plata yesterday in open day, and approached the fort and ship with his men in the hold of the sloop, except five or six to work her in. They ran a long side of the ship, and boarded her sword in hand, without the loss of a man killed or wounded. At the moment the ship was boarded, and agreeably to my plan Capt. CARMICHAEL and Lieut. ANTONY landed with the marines up to their necks in water, and spiked up the cannon in the fort, before the commanding officer in the castle had time to recollect or prepare himself for defence. Perhaps no enterprise of the same moment was ever better executed; and I feel myself under great obligations to Lt. HALL, Capt. CARMICHAEL, and Lt. ANTONY for their avidity in undertaking to execute this enterprise; and for the handsome manner in which they performed this bold and daring undertaking.

The Prize fund mounts four sixes and two nines; she was formerly the British Packet Sandwich, and from the hoisting publications at the Cape, and from the declarations of the officers, it appears that she is the fastest sailer that swims; and that she ran three or four years, if I forget not, as a privateer out of France, and with great success than any other that ever sailed out of her ports. She is a beautiful copper-bottomed ship; her cargo consists principally of sugar and coffee.

NEW-YORK, JUNE 2. A letter from Maryland, mentions that the Hessian Fly has effected the destruction of wheat there in a melancholy degree. They, however, it is said, spare what is called early wheat.

NEW-HAVEN, (CON.) JUNE 9. Mr. Webster of this city, we understand, is engaged in completing the system for the instruction of youth, which he began in the year 1783. He has in hand a Dictionary of the American Language, a work long since projected, but which other occupations have delayed till this time. The plan contemplated extends to a small Dictionary for schools, one for the counting-house, and a large one for men of science. The first is nearly ready for the press—the second and third will require the labor of some years.

It is found that a work of this kind is absolutely necessary, on account of considerable differences between the American and English language. New circumstances, new modes of life, new laws, new ideas of various kinds give rise to new words, and have already made many material differences between the language of England and America. Some new words are introduced in America, and many more new significations are annexed to words, which it is necessary to explain. It is probable that the alterations in the tenures of land and the ecclesiastical polity, will disfigure the language in America several hundred words which belong to the English. The differences in the language of the two countries will continue to multiply, and render it necessary that we should have Dictionaries of the American Language.

At the Circuit Court for the District of Virginia, sitting at Richmond, the infamous JAMES THOMPSON CALLENDER, has been indicted for the libellous publication entitled "The Prospect before us." Through the exertion of his friends, (for to the disgrace of our country such fellows have their friends) the Marshall experienced some difficulty in finding him; but, it is said, he at length succeeded.

A merchant in New-York is said to have drawn a 30,000. prize in the English Lottery. AARON PUTNAM, Esq. is elected Representative for Charleston, vice the Hon. JOSIAH BARTLETT, chosen to the Senate.

Messrs. YOUNG and MINNA—noticed in your paper an application to the Legislature for the introduction of the Vibrating Steelyard, which I hope will take place, as this town has been taxed long enough by the use of the old Steelyard. A Freeholder.

On Tuesday last Mr. Nathaniel Bowen, son of the late Rev. Penul Bowen, formerly of this town, was ordained in Trinity Church, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Bas, to the Order of a Deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church. A pathetic Discourse was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Walter, on the occasion.

The U. S. Frigate Essex, capt. Preble, arrived safe at the Cape of Good Hope. Officers and crew in health. The Essex made her passage to the Cape of Good Hope in 66 days; and proves an excellent sailer. She was watering, and capt. Preble intended waiting there for the Congress; being ignorant of the mistake which happened to her.

Arrived at the Cape of Good Hope, March 14, a very small copper bottomed Boston Brig, with a long mainmast, from the N. W. Coast and Canton.

A letter from Bombay mentions that in Dec. last, four American vessels were captured in the Straights of Sunda. Brig Ellen, 46 days from Cadiz for Portsmouth, was spoken May 19, lat. 41, 40.

A Corvette, which brought Bonaparte's agents from France to Guadaloupe, has captured several American vessels. May 3, lat. 42, long. 63, was spoken brig Rambler, 6 days from Beverly.

The Industry, Andwell, from Portsmouth for Demerara; and Commerce, Jones, from Portland for Barbadoes, are taken by the French. Capt. Motely, of Portland, was on board the British frigate Retaliation, May 7.

Schooner Hope, from Jamaica for Boston, was spoken May 10, all her crew dead, except the captain and boy. At Antigua, brig Lydia of Wiscasset; Ich. Hope, of Portsmouth, recaptured.

In the account of the polite treatment experienced by the sloop Dispatch, capt. Worthington, from a French privateer, published in yesterday's Chronicle, it seems that the writer forgot to mention that the Frenchmen very kindly took from the vessel two barrels of sugar;—and for fear that their beloved Americans should furnish themselves with oranges and tamarinds, very generously deprived them of those pernicious articles.

The Letter Bag of the GALEN, Capt. HINKLEY, for London, will be taken from the Post-Office this evening, at 9 o'clock.

The Treasury.

FROM A LONDON PAPER.

VERSES,

ADDRESSED TO A FEMALE DEMOCRAT.

THE world all equal! vain illusion!
Thine, charming Julia, what confusion
Your doctrine would create;
The French might then, the day their own,
Reform our altar and our throne,
And organize the State.

To reign, by beauty's soft controul,
The sov'reign of the captive soul,
Would then be public treason;
The Queen of love herself might dread
To lure her throne, perhaps her head,
In our new "Age of Reason."

Coarse is defend by bad a cause;
Should you subvert our good old laws,
Yourself too dear would pay;
For Chaos then would cover all,
T'alarms and graces prostrate fall,
To "Free Chigolite!"

If what you say be just and real,
That all distinction is ideal,
Play then this mighty evil;
To slay your own pretensions,
In wit, accomplishments, and sense,
And join our humble level.

Fill then, I own, I hope to see
Subjects and Kings in peace agree,
To earth's remotest border,
France our mine on a Religion's way,
And far the Order of the day,
Reflect the days of order.
