Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	In 1884, the Niagara Falls International Camp Meeting Association opened Wesley Park. It was to be a huge camp ground and summer resort and covered 200 acres. The land was laid out in circles, crescents and streets. Within the large circle called Epworth there existed an auditorium to be used for Methodist camp meetings, missionary and temperance conventions. The camp meetings failed and the lots were sold off by lottery in 1887. In 1893, the site of the Wesley Park Camp auditorium was acquired by the Niagara Falls Collegiate Institute.
